

LET'S WORK IN PARTNERSHIP TO Keep our mob out of custody

ARE YOU A MEMBER OF THE LOCAL AREA COMMAND ABORIGINAL CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE (LACACC)?

Communication with the Aboriginal community is a fundamental principle driving the NSW Police Force Aboriginal Strategic Direction 2007 – 2011 (ASD policy).

The LACACC is where the Aboriginal community and police meet to discuss local crime and violence issues and develop Local Area Command Aboriginal Action Plans.

NSW Police Force
www.police.nsw.gov.au

DOES YOUR LOCAL AREA COMMAND HAVE AN ABORIGINAL ACTION PLAN?

A focus of the ASD will be engaging the Aboriginal community in the development of Local Area Command Aboriginal Action Plans that will guide police / Aboriginal interventions. This provides Aboriginal people a say in how their community is policed.

For more information about the Aboriginal Strategic Direction, LACACCs and LAC Aboriginal Action Plans please contact your local police.