FURTHER INFORMATION

It is a serious offence under the Firearms Act 1996 to make a statement or provide information in relation to an application that is false or misleading. By signing the Declaration on your Firearms Permit application form, you are certifying that ALL the information supplied in relation to this application is true and correct.

A Historical Re-enactment Organiser's Permit does not authorise the use of ammunition for firearms to which the permit relates. However, if the historical re-enactment event is being carried out in front of an invited viewing audience or at a place away from public view and hearing, blank cartridges may be used with any firearms to which the permit relates.

All firearms must be registered, either to the Re-enactment Permit or licensed participants, except those antique firearms which do not require registration.
