

Reporting Crime - Crime Stoppers - People who are Deaf or hard of hearing, or who have a speech impairment

If criminal or suspicious behaviour or activity is not occurring right now, people who are deaf or hard of hearing, or who have a speech impairment can contact Crime Stoppers through the National Relay Service.

A professional relay officer becomes the central link in the phone call relaying what is said by both parties. This is strictly compliant with privacy legislation.

Contact your local police or Triple Zero (000) immediately if criminal or suspicious behaviour is occurring now.

- To report criminal or suspicious behaviour or activity confidentially you can contact Crime Stoppers (1800 333 000) through the National Relay Service.
