A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of more than 20 km/h but not more than 30 km/h above the speed limit applicable). The speed limit applying for any length of road to a driver who is the holder of a provisional P2 licence is 100 kilometres per hour, unless another lesser speed limit applies to the driver (exceed applicable speed limit by not more than 10 km/h). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (For a class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of not more than 10 km/h above the speed limit applicable in a school zone). The speed limit applying for any length of road to a driver who is the holder of a provisional P1 licence is 90 km/h, unless another lesser speed limit applies (drive at a speed of more than 10 km/h but not more than 20 km/h above the limit). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (In the case of a class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of not more than 10 km/h above the speed limit applicable). The speed limit applying for any length of road to a driver who is the holder of a provisional P2 licence is 100 kilometres per hour, unless another lesser speed limit applies to the driver (exceed applicable speed limit by more than 45 km/h). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (In the case of a class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of not more than 10 km/h above the speed limit applicable). The speed limit applying for any length of road to a driver who is the holder of a provisional P1 licence is 90 km/h, unless another lesser speed limit applies (drive at a speed of more than 20 km/h but not more than 30 km/h above the limit). If the number on the speed limit sign is over 100 and the driver is driving a class B vehicle, the speed limit applying to the driver for the length of road is 100 kilometres per hour (exceed speed limit by not more than 10 km/h). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (In the case of a class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of not more than 10 km/h above the speed limit applicable). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of more than 20 km/h but not more than 30 km/h above the speed limit applicable). The speed limit applying for any length of road to a driver who is the holder of a provisional P2 licence is 100 km/h, unless another lesser speed limit applies to the driver (exceed applicable speed limit by more than 20 km/h but not more than 30 km/h). The speed limit applying for any length of road to a driver who is the holder of a provisional P1 licence is 90 km/h, unless another lesser speed limit applies (drive at a speed of more than 10 km/h but not more than 20 km/h above the limit). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of more than 20 km/h but not more than 30 km/h above the speed limit applicable). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (class B motor vehicle driven at a speed of more than 10 km/h but not more than 20 km/h above the speed limit applicable). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of more than 10 km/h but not more than 20 km/h above the speed limit applicable). The speed limit applying for any length of road to a driver who is the holder of a provisional P1 licence is 90 km/h, unless another lesser speed limit applies (drive at a speed of more than 20 km/h but not more than 30 km/h above the limit). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (class A motor vehicle driven at more than 10 km/h but not more than 20 km/h above the speed limit in a school zone). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (In the case of a class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of not more than 10 km/h above the speed limit applicable). A driver must not drive at a speed over the speed-limit applying to the driver for the length of road where the driver is driving (class A motor vehicle driven at a speed of more than 20 km/h but not more than 30 km/h above the speed limit applicable).
