

Sections 23C and 23D Terrorism (Police Powers) Act 2002
Public Assembly Restriction Declaration Extension/Variation

Following a Public Assembly Restriction declaration made by me under s 23B of the Terrorism (Police Powers) Act 2002 at 17:23 on 24 December 2025 and extended by me at 15:18 on 6 January 2026:

I, Mal Lanyon APM, Commissioner of Police of the New South Wales Police Force, do hereby extend and vary the declaration to apply to the following areas in which the authorisation of holding of public assemblies is restricted:

- 1. The shaded area depicted in the map attached to this declaration.

In extending and varying this declaration, I am satisfied that the holding of public assemblies in the areas to which this declaration applies would be likely to cause:

- 1. A risk to community safety, including the safety of participants in public assemblies in the areas.

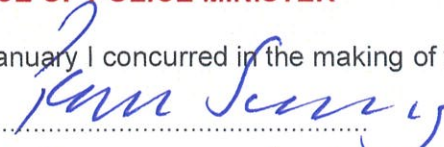

This extension was made by me at 13:31 on 20 January 2026 and will expire after 13:31 on the 29 January 2026
