

Premier Chris Minns and Police Minister Yasmin Catley have both alluded to 700 antisemitic incidents in Sydney over the summer, with the former attributing the fact to deputy commissioner David Hudson.

Notes

Operation Shelter began on 11 October 2023. The term 'incidents' encompasses Events, Intelligence Reports and Charges as recorded in COPS.

As of 26 March 2025, there are 815 incidents in this spreadsheet that are Anti-Semitic or Islamophobic in nature as well as other incidents that fall into neither category. The 'other' incidents relate to events such as protest activity, political statements that do not amount to an offence or incidents that, upon review, fall outside the scope of Shelter.

Of the total 815 incidents recorded:

- 38 have been classified as 'Islamophobic';
- 367 as 'Anti-Semitic'; and
- 410 as 'Other'.

The other incidents were further categorised as:

- 200 Protest related;
- 82 Political Statement - no offence;
- 87 Outside of the scope of Operation Shelter;
- 13 Mental Health Incidents; and
- 28 Operation Shelter - other offence (capturing graffiti/vandalism and other offences that potentially fit within the Operation Shelter's Terms of Reference but lack clear Anti-Semitic or Islamophobic links).

In addition to incidents reported to, or investigated by, the NSW Police, the Community Security Group has recorded many hundreds of antisemitic events of which many are not recorded on NSW Police systems.
