FURTHER INFORMATION

All fees are listed in Australian dollars and no GST is applicable on any fee.

The fee for a new individual firearm licence is paid at Service NSW or RMS when your photo licence is issued. The fee for a subsequent licence (renewal of existing firearm licence) is paid online at the time of application.

Most fees for Permits are made at the time of application to the Firearms Registry. See the relevant FACT Sheet for each Permit type for further information on payment method.

Permit to Acquire (PTA) fees are paid online by credit card at the time of application via the Service NSW portal - Service NSW accepts Visa, MasterCard or American Express for online payment of fees.

Fees paid to the Firearms Registry can be paid by credit card, money order or cheque.

Cheques and money orders must be made payable to the NSW Police Force.

Credit Cards - we accept Visa or Mastercard (include cardholder's name, signature, date of authorisation, complete card number, expiry date, type of card and the amount you authorise to debit)

DO NOT SEND CASH with any application requiring payment at the Firearms Registry.

Submit payment with original applications only. DO NOT FAX applications.

Where insufficient funds are available for payment by cheque or credit card, your application will be delayed.

If a receipt is required for taxation purposes, please submit the request in writing.

If payment is made separately to the application, please include customer identification (name, licence or permit number) and contact phone number with payment.
