

Victims Support Scheme

The Victims Support Scheme is for victims of crime.

A victim is someone who

- was hurt by another person
- had something stolen or damaged
- is a family member of a person killed.

You might be able to get

- information
- counselling
- money for emergency costs.

For example, somewhere to stay for a short time to keep you safe.

- money for other costs.

For example, medical or dentist bills.

- money for you. For example, if you were sexually assaulted.

There are limits to how much money you can get.

Talk to Victims Services to find out more information. Victims Services will tell you what you can get.
