

PCA READINGS IN NSW IN 2017

The following data on drivers charged with exceeding the prescribed concentration of alcohol (PCA) was sourced from the NSW Police Force Computerised Operational Policing System (COPS).

In NSW, rather than supplying on the spot fines as occurs in some other states, drivers exceeding the PCA are charged. Fines – if applicable – are then determined by the courts.

Therefore, the information in the second table on charges and fines by postcode includes all charges laid in 2017, plus all fines issued by courts in 2017, broken down by whether the charge was laid in 2017 or earlier.
