

SCAM ALERT!

Chinese Authority Scams:

Scammers impersonate Chinese police, government or military officials, or a courier service to extort money from the victim.

The scammers may tell you:

- Your personal details are known or compromised.
- A parcel addressed to you, containing compromised documents, has been intercepted.
- You have been implicated in a crime and you may be charged or there is arrest warrant for you or your family. They may produce apparent Chinese authority documents including an arrest warrant.
- To go to a website claiming to be a Chinese authority to obtain a phone number.

The scammers will demand money to stop these fake criminal charges. They may also threaten you with the deportation of yourself or your family. This is always a lie.

DO NOT send any money and HANG up the call immediately.

DO NOT reveal any PERSONAL information.

DO collect as much information/ data about the scammer as possible.

DO report any suspicious scam/ behaviour to your local Police or report at www.cyber.gov.au/report-and-recover or Police Assistance Line 131 444.

NSW Police Force

NSWPF/2023/16658