Please note that most dogs offered through this program have been bred by the NSW Police Force or purchased from reputable breeders. These dogs have been deemed unsuitable for Police dog training and are consequently sold through this program. The price of each dog is based on a minimal reflection of the cost of feeding, vaccinating, medicating and vetting. The dogs offered through this Program have no formal training.

All dogs offered for adoption by the NSW Police Force are de-sexed, microchipped, vaccinated and treated for Intestinal worms inclusive of Heartworm.

IMPORTANT NOTE - The dogs that are offered through this program are often young and excitable, strong and active. Under no circumstances does the NSW Police Force Dog Command offer fully trained General Purpose Police dogs to members of the public.
