

VICTIMS SUPPORT SCHEME

Victims Services, within the Department of Communities and Justice, provides counselling and financial assistance to help victims of violent crime in NSW under the Victims Support Scheme .

The Victims Support Scheme allows eligible victims of violent crime to access four pillars of support:

1. Free counselling
2. Financial assistance for immediate needs, including the Immediate Needs Support Package [INSP] for domestic violence victims
3. Financial assistance for economic loss
4. 4. Recognition payments.
