

The following data has been requested:

1. For the year 2012, 2013 and 2014, how many licence applications were refused under (s 11(5)(a), Firearms Act 1996) – (were (sic) the licence applicant is subject to an apprehended violence order or who has, at any time within 10 years before the application of the licence was made, been subject to such an order (other than an order that has been revoked) ?

Q1- refused licences
Year	No of licences
2012	186
2013	173
2014	194

2. For the year 2012, 2013 and 2014, how many firearms licenses were suspended on the making of an interim apprehended violence order under (s 23, Firearms Act) ?

Q2 – suspended licences
Year	No of licences
2012	423
2013	404
2014	507

3. For the year 2012, 2013 and 2014 how many licenses were returned upon the revocations of interim order?

Q3 – returned upon revocation of the IAVO
Year	No of licences
2012	336
2013	380
2014	320

4. For the year 2012, 2013 and 2014, how many licenses were suspended under s 22 and 23 of the Firearms Act?

Q4 - suspended licences under s 22 and s 23
Year	No of licences
2012	461
2013	542
2014	854

5. For the year 2012, 2013 and 2014 how many firearms were seized under s 25 (2) of the Act?

In relation to this question we are unable to provide the figures as we are not able to drill down within the Seizure of Firearms incident created in the Computerised Policing System (COPS) by police at the time of seizure to determine the reason for seizure without it being a manual process which would be resource intensive and take considerable amount of time.

6. For the year 2012, 2013, and 2014, how many firearms licenses were revoked because the licensee had become subject to an AVO order under s 24(1), Firearms Act

Q6 – revoked licensee upon being subject of an AVO
Year	No of licences
2012	256
2013	267
2014	225

7. For the year 2012, 2013 and 2014, how many firearm licenses were revoked due to a licensee becoming subject to a firearms prohibition order under s 24(1) Firearms Act?

Q7– revoked licensee upon being subject of an FPO
Year	No of licences
2012	Nil
2013	Nil
2014	1